

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO MAKE THIS YEAR'S NACAC CONFERENCE A GREAT SUCCESS!

From July 30 to August 2, 2008, the North American Council on Adoptable Children (NACAC) will partner with the Adoption Council of Canada (ACC) to hold the 34th annual NACAC conference in Ottawa, Ontario.

The conference is open to everyone interested in the welfare of children and families, including adoptive, foster, and birth parents, kinship care providers, child welfare professionals, and other child advocates.

Von Ende Communications will be audio-recording most of the sessions at the NACAC Conference and they are looking for responsible young folks to work for them during the conference.

Von Ende Communications needs at least 3 or 4 people each day and will provide a modest wage to those selected.

If you are over the age of 13 and would like to help with this prestigious event in Ottawa, please contact the Program Manager for the Adoption Council of Canada, Sarah Pedersen: sarah@adoption.ca

Thank you for making this year's conference a success,

The NACAC Conference Team
